

www.aabdc.com

Suzhou Business & Trade Delegation

September 10, 2007
Harvard Club
35 West 44th Street
New York, NY 10036

Questions? Contact AABDC at 212-966-0100.

Why Attend This Event

Organized by AABDC, this information and networking forum will be attended by the Mayor of Suzhou and other high level business leaders from the region who will share details on business development opportunities in the city. There are over 24,00 foreign companies operating in Suzhou, including Suzsoft, a partnership with P&G, Boeing, Microsoft, and other well-known multinational corporations. The business leaders of Suzhou are eager to meet with NYC based companies that are interested in exploring an outsourcing strategy.

About Suzhou, China's New Outsourcing Trade Zone

Located one hour from Shanghai, Suzhou, with its 2,500 year-old cultural heritage, has moved into the hi-tech zone of software development, research outsourcing, animation, IC design, and traditional IT outsourcing. This unique city in China has been designated by the Ministry of Commerce, Ministry of Information Industry, and Ministry of Science and Technology to serve the outsourcing needs of businesses around the world. According to trade figures released this year, Suzhou has already overtaken Shanghai in foreign direct investment, which today is valued at $24.8 billion.

Asian American Business Development Center
cordially invites you to a presentation on

Suzhou: China's New Outsourcing Trade Zone Breakfast Forum

with

Keynote Speaker:
Li Yan, Mayor of Suzhou

September 10, 2007
Harvard Club
8:30 AM - 10:30 AM

35 West 44th Street (between 5th & Ave of the Americas)

RSVP
by calling 212-966-0100 or by email at info@aabdc.com

